not carnal things, but strong by the power of God, to cast downe holdes) ⁹ Wherwith we ouerthrowe imaginations, and euerie hie thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringe into captiuitie euerie thought, to the obedience of Christe, ⁶ And haue ready the vengeance on all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

⁷ Loke ye on things after the viter appearance? If any man truste in hym selfe that he is Christes, let the same lykewise consider of hym selfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes. ⁸ For though I should boast my selfe some what more of our auctoritie, which the Lord hath geuen vs to edifie, and not to destroye you, I nede not to be ashamed, ⁹ This I say lest I should seme to make you afraied wyth letters. ¹⁰ For the letters (sayeth he) are sore and stronge, but his bodely presence is weake, and his speach is of no value.

¹¹ Let hym that is suche, thinke that as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche wyl we be in dede, when we are present. ¹² For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise them selues: but they vnder stand not that they measure them selues with them selues, and compare them selues with them selues.

¹³ But we wil not reioyce aboue measure, of things which are not with in the compas of our measure: but according to the measure of that line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs, a measure, to reach euen vnto you. ¹⁴ For we stretche not our selues beyonde our measure, as though we had not reached vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ, ¹⁵ Not boasting our selues of things which are without the compas of our measure: that is, of other mens labours: yea, and we hope, when your fayeth shall increase, to be magnified by you in our measure appointed vnto vs, and that abundantly. ¹⁶ And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyonde you: not to reioyce in the measure, which is appointed to an other man, that is, in them that are prepared already.

vvarfare are not carnal: but mightie to God vnto the destruction of manitions, destroying counsels, ⁵ and al loftinesse extolling it self against the knowlege of God, and bringing into captiuitie al vnderstanding vnto the obedience of Christ, ⁶ and hauing in a readinesse to reuenge al disobedience, vwhen your obedience shal be fulfilled.

⁷ See the things that are according to appearance. If any man haue affiance in hym self, that he is Christis: let him thinke this againe vwith hym self, that as he is Christis, so vve also. ⁸ For and if I should glorie somevhat more of our pover, vvhich our Lord hath giuen vs vnto edification and not to your destruction: I shal not be ashamed. ⁹ But that I may not be thought as it vvore to terrifie you by epistles (¹⁰ for his epistles in deede, say they, are sore and vehement: but his bodily presence vveake, and his speache contemptible) ¹¹ let him thinke that is such a one, that such as vve are in vvord by epistles, absent: such also vve are in deede, present. ¹² For vve dare not matche or compare our selues vwith certaine, that commend them selues: but vve measure our selues in our selues, and compare our selues to our selues. ¹³ But vve vvil not glorie aboue our measure: but according to the measure of the rule vvhich God hath measured to vs, a measure to reach euen vnto you. ¹⁴ For not, as though vve reached not vnto you, doe vve extend our selues beyonde. WOULD to God you could beare with mee a litle in my folly, and in deede ^a beare with me. ² For I am ielous ouer you with godly ielousie, for I haue espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. ³ But I feare lest by any means, as the Serpent begyled Eue through his subtilty, so your mindes should be corrupted from the simplicitie that is in Christ. ⁴ For if he that commeth preacheth another Iesus whome we haue not preached, or if ye receiue another spirit, which ye haue not receiued, or another Gospel, which ye haue not accepted, ye might wel beare with him.

⁵ For, I suppose, I was not a whit behind the very chiefeest Apostles. ⁶ But though I be rude in speach, yet not in knowledge; but we haue bene thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

⁷ Haue I committed an offence in abasing my selfe, that you might be exalted, because I haue preached to you the Gospel of God freely? ⁸ I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them to doe you seruice. ⁹ And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: For that which was lacking to mee, the brethen which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I haue kept my selfe from being burthensome to you, and so will I keepe my selfe. ¹⁰ As the truth of Christ is in mee, no man shall ⁸ stop mee of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth. ¹² But what I doe, that I wil doe, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found euen as we.

¹³ For such are false Apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the Apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And no marueile, and I burne not? ³⁰ If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concerne mine infirmities. ³¹ The God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not. ³² In Damascus the gouernour vnder Aretas the King, kept the citie with a garison, desirous to apprehend mee. ³³ And through a window in a basket was I let downe, by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12. IT is not expedient for me, doubtlesse, to glory, I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord. ² I knewe a man in Christ aboue fouertene yerres agone, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth: such a one, caught vp to the third heauen. ³ And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth.) ⁴ How that he was caught vp into Paradise, and heard vnspokeable wordes, which it is not lawfull for a man to vtter. ⁵ Of such a one will I glory, yet of my selfe I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. ⁶ For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a foole: for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should thinke of me aboue that which he seeth mee to be, or that he heareth of me:

⁷ And lest I should be exalted aboue measure through the abundance of the reuelations, there was giuen to mee a thorne in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted aboue measure. ⁸ For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from mee. ⁹ And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest vpon me. ¹⁰ Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christes sake: for when I am weak, you: In the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euery vvord stand. ² I foretold and doe foretel as present, and nowv absent, to them that sinned before, and all the rest, that if I come againe, I vvill not spare. ³ Seeke you an experiment of him that speaketh in me, Christ: vvho in you is not vveake, but is mightie in you? ⁴ For although he vvvas crucified of infirmite: yet he liueth by the povver of God. For vve also are vveake in him: but vve shal lue vvith him by the povver of God on you.

⁵ Trie you yourvne selues if you be in the faith: proue ye your selues. Knowv you not your selues that Christ Issvs is in you, vnlesse perhaps you he reprobates.

⁶ But I hope you knowv that vve are not reprobates. ⁷ And vve pray God, that you doe no euill, not that vve may appeare approued, but that you may doe that vvich is good, and vve be as reprobates. ⁸ For vve can not any thing against the truth: but for the truth. ⁹ For vve reioyce, for that vve are vveake, and you are mightie.

This also vve pray for, your consummation. ¹⁰ Therefore these things I vvrite absent: that being present I may not deale hardly accordyng to the povver vvich our Lord hath giuen me vnto edification and not vnto destruction.

¹¹ For the rest brethren, reioyce, he perfect, take exhortation, be of one minde, haue peace, and the God of peace and of loue shal be vvith you. ¹² Salute one another in a holy kisse. ¹³ Al the saintes salute you. ¹⁴ The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the charitie of God, and the communication of the holy Ghost be vvith you all. coming to you: in the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euery word be established. ² I told you before, and foretold you as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all other, that if I come againe I will not spare: ³ Since yee seeke a prooue of Christ, speaking in me, which to youward is not weake, but is mighty in you. ⁴ For though hee was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liueth by the power of God: for we also are weake ^a in him, but wee shal lue with him by the power of God toward you. ⁵ Examine your selues, whether ye be in the faith: proue your owne selues. Know ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye he reprobates?

⁶ But I trust that yee shal know that we are not reprobates. ⁷ Now I pray to God, that ye doe no euill, not that we should appeare approued, but that ye should doe that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. ⁸ For we can doe nothing against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹ For wee are glad when wee are weake, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, euen your perfection. ¹⁰ Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should vse sharpnes, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me to edification, and not to destruction. ¹¹ Finally, brethren, farewell: Bee perfect, be of good comfort, bee of one minde, lue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you. ¹² Greet one another with an holy kisse. ¹³ All the Saints salute you. ¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all. God forbid. ¹⁸For if I build againe the thinges which I destroyed, I make my selfe a transgressor.

¹⁹For I through the Law, am dead to the Law, that I might liue vnto God. ²⁰I am crucified with Christ. Neuertheles, I liue, yet not I, but Christ liueth in me, and the life which I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith of the Sonne of God, who loued me, and gaue himselfe for me. ²¹I doe not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the Law, then Christ is dead in vaine.

3. O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the trueth, before whose eyes Iesus Christ hath bene evidently set forth, crucified among you? ²This onely would I learne of you, recieued ye the spirit, by the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith? ³Are ye so foolish? hauing begonne in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? ⁴Haue ye suffered so many thinges in vaine? if it be yet in vaine. ⁵Hee therefore that ministrith to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth he it by the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith? ⁶Euen as Abraham beleued God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. ⁷Knowe yee therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. ⁸And the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

⁹So then, they which bee of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of the workes of the Law.

²⁴ Wherefore the Law was our Schoolemaster to bring vs vnto Christ, that we might be iustified by faith. ²⁵ But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a Schoolemaster. ²⁶ For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Iesus. ²⁷ For as many of you as haue bene baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ ²⁸ There is neither Iew, nor Greeke, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus. ²⁹ And if ye be Christes, then are yee Abrahams seed, and heires according to the promise.

4. NOW I say, that the heire, as long as hee is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though hee bee Lord of all, ² But is vnder tutors and gouernours vntill the time appointed of the father. ³ Euen so we, when we were children, were in bondage vnder the^e Elements of the world: ⁴ But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, made vnder the Law, ⁵ To redeeme them that were vnder the Law, that we might recieue the adoption of sonnes. ⁶ And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, crying Abba, Father. ⁷ Wherefore thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne; and if a sonne, then an heire of God through Christ.

⁸ Howbeit, then when ye know not God, ye did serueie vnto them which by nature are no Gods. ⁹ But now after that ye haue known God, or rather are known of God, how turne ye^e againe to the weak and beggerly^e Elements, wherunto ye desire againe to he in bondage? ¹⁰ Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times,

Cast out the bond-woman and her sonne, for the sonne of the bond-woman shal not be heire with the sonne of the free-woman. ³¹ Therefore brethren we are not the chyl dren of the bond-woman, but of the free: by the freedom wherewith Christ hath made vs free.

5. STAND, and be not holden in againe with the yoke of seruitude. ² Behold I Paul tel you that if you be circumcised, Christ shal profite you nothing. ³ And I testifie againe to euery man circumciding him self, that he is a detter to doe the vvhole Law. ⁴ You are euacuated from Christ, that are iustified in the Law: you are fallen from grace. ⁵ For we in spirit, by faith, expect the hope of iustice. ⁶ For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auaieth ought, nor prepuce: but faith that vworketh by charitie.

⁷ You ranne vvel, vvhich hath hindered you not to obey the truth? ⁸ The perswasion is not of him that calleth you. ⁹ A litle leauen corrupteth the vvhole paste. ¹⁰ I haue confidence in you in our Lord: that you wyl be of no other minde: but he that troubleth you, shal beare the iudgement, whosoever he be. ¹¹ And as for me, brethren, if as yet I preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? then is the scandal of the crosse euacuated. ¹² I would they were also cut of that trouble you.

hath many moe chyl dren then she which hath an husband. ²⁸ Now wee, brethren, as Isaac was, are the chyl dren of promise. ²⁹ But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the Spirit, euen so it is now. ³⁰ Nevertheless, what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her sonne: for the sonne of the bondwoman shal not be heire with the sonne of the freewoman. ³¹ So then, brethren, we are not chyl dren of the bondwoman, but of the free.

5. STAND fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage. ² Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shal profite you nothing. ³ For I testifie againe to euery man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to doe the whole Law. ⁴ Christ is become of no effect vnto you, whosoever of you are iustified by the Law: ye are fallen from grace. ⁵ For we through the spirit waite for the hope of righteousness by faith.

⁶ For in Iesus Christ, neither Circumcision auaieth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue. ⁷ Ye did run wel; who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth? ⁸ This perswasion cometh not of him that calleth you. ⁹ A litle leauen leaueth the whole lump. ¹⁰ I haue confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his iudgement, whosoever hee be. ¹¹ And I, brethren, if I yet preach Circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the crosse ceased. ¹² I would they were euen cut off which trouble you. ¹³ For brethren, yee haue bene called vnto libertie, only use not libertie for an occasion to the flesh, but by loue serue one another. ¹⁴ For all the Law is fulfilled in one word, euen in this: Thou shalt loue thy neighbour

⁸ For hee that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reap life everlasting. ⁹ And let vs not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. ¹⁰ As we haue therefore opportunitie, let vs doe good vnto all men, especially vnto them who are of the household of faith. ¹¹ Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand. ¹² As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be Circumcised: only least they should suffer persecution for the Crosse of Christ.

¹³ For neither they themselues who are circumcised, keepe the Law, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. ¹⁴ But God forbid that I should glorie, saue in the Crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, ^a by whom the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world. ¹⁵ For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision aualeth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature. ¹⁶ And as many as walke according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercie, and vpon the Israēl of God. ¹⁷ From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I beare in my body the markes of the Lord Iesus. ¹⁸ Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. wrath of God vpon the children of disobedience.

²⁴ Therefore as the Church is subiect vnto Christ, so let the vvives be to their owne husbands in euery thyng. ²⁵ Hus- bands, loue your vvives, euen as Christ also loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it : ²⁶ That he might sanctifie and cleanse it vvith the vvashing of vvater, by the vvord, ²⁷ That he might present it to himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Iesus. ¹³ Brethren, I count not my selfe to haue apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those thyngs which are behind, and reaching forth vnto those thyngs which are before, ¹⁴ I presse toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus. ¹⁵ Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thyng ye be otherwise minded, God shal reueale euen this vnto you. ¹⁶ Neuerthelesse, whereto we haue already attained, let vs walke by the same rule, let vs mind the same thing. ¹⁷ Brethren, be followers together of me, and marke them which walke so, as ye haue vs for an ensample.

¹⁸ (For many walke, of whome I haue told you often, and now tell you euen weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ: ¹⁹ Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who minde earthly thyngs.) ²⁰ For our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also we looke for the Sauour, the Lord Iesus Christ: ²¹ Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able euen to subdue all thyngs vnto himselfe.

4. THEREFORE, my brethren, dearly beloued and longed for, my ioy and crowne, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloued. ² I beseech Eudodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. ³ And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, helpe those women which laboured with mee in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the booke of life. ⁴ Reioyce in the Lord alway: and againe I say, Reioyce. ⁵ Let your moderation be knowne vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

2. FOR I would that ye knew what great ^c conflict I haue for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as haue not sene my face in the flesh: ² That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in loue, and vnto all riches of the full assurance of vvnderstanding, to the acknowledgement of the mysterie of God, and of the Father, and of Christ, ³ ^d In whom are hid all the treasures of vvisedome, and knowledge. ⁴ And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with entising wordes. ⁵ For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I vvith you in the spirit, ioying and beholding your order, and the stedfastnesse of your faith in Christ. ⁶ As ye haue therefore receiued Christ Iesus the Lord, so walke ye in him: ⁷ Rooted and built vp in him, and stabilised in the faith, as ye haue bene taught, abounding therein with thankes-giuing. ⁸ Beware lest any man spoile you through Philosophie and vaine deceit, after the tradition of men, after the ^e rudiments of the vvorld, and not after Christ:

haue in deed a shew of wisdomed in will-worship and humilitie, and neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

3. IF ye then bee risen with Christ, seeke those things which are aboue, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God: ² Set your affection on things aboue, not on things on the earth. ³ For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is our life, shall appeare, then shall ye also appeare with him in glorie. ⁵ Mortifie therefore your members which are vpon the earth: fornication, vncleannesse, inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnesse, which is idolatrie: ⁶ For which things sake, the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience, ⁷ In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye liued in them.

⁸ But now you also put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemie, filthy communication out of your mouth. ⁹ Lie not one to another, seeing that ye haue put off the old man with his deedes: ¹⁰ And haue put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him, ¹¹ Where there is neither Greeke, nor Iew, circumcision, nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. ¹² Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloued) bowels of mercies, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meeknesse, long suffering. ¹³ Forbearing one another, and forgiuing one another, if any man haue a quarell against any: euen as Christ forgave you, so also doe ye. ¹⁴ And aboue all these things put on charitie, which is the bond of perfectnesse. ¹⁵ And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and bee ye thankfull.

¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and

5. BVT of the tymes and seasons brethren, ye haue no nede that I wryte vnto you. ² For ye your selues knowe perfectly, that the day of the Lord shal come, euen as a thefe in the nyght. ³ For when they shal say, Peace, and all thyngs safe, then cometh on them soden destruction, as the trauayling of a woman with childe, and they shal not escape. ⁴ But ye brethren are not in darknesse, that that day should come on you as it were a thefe.

⁵ Ye are all the children of light, and the chyl dren of the day: we are not of the nyght nether of darknes. ⁶ Therefore let vs not slepe as do other, but let vs watche and be sober. ⁷ For they that slepe, slepe in the nyght, and they that be droncken, are droncken in the nyght. ⁸ But let vs whych are of the day, be sober, armed with the breste plate of fayth and loue, and wyth hope of saluation as an helmet.

⁹ For God hath not appoynted vs vnto wrath: but to obtayne saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ. ¹⁰ Which dyled for vs, that whether we wake or slepe, we should lyeue together wyth him.
¹¹ Wherefore exhorte one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye do.

¹² We beseeche you brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and haue the ouersyght of you in the Lord, and geue you exhortation. ¹³ That ye haue them the more in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace amonge your selues. ¹⁴ We desire you brethren, warne them that are vnruely, comforte the feble

5. AND of the times and momentes, brethren, you neede not that vve wryte to you. ² For your selues know perfectly that the day of our Lord shal so come, as a theefe in the nyght. ³ For vwhen they shal say, peace and securitie: then shal sodaine destruction come vpon them, as the paines to her that is vwith childe, and they shal not escape. ⁴ But you brethren are not in darknesse: that the same day may as a theefe ouertake you.

⁵ For al you are the children of light, and children of the day: vve are not of the nyght nor of darknesse, ⁶ Therefore let vs not sleepe as also others: but let vs vwatch and be sober. ⁷ For they that sleepe, sleepe in the nyght: and they that be drunke, be drunke in the nyght.
⁸ But vve that are of the day, are sober, hauing on the breast-plate of faith and

5. BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, yee haue no need that I write vnto you. ² For your selues know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. ³ For when they shall say, Peace and safetie: then sudden destruction cometh vpon them, as trouble vpon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. ⁴ But ye, brethren, are not in darknesse, that that day should ouertake you as a thief. ⁵ Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: wee are not of the night, nor of darknesse. ⁶ Therefore let vs not sleepe, as do others: but let vs watch and be sober. ⁷ For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that bee druncken, are druncken in the night. ⁸ But let vs who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, and for an helmet, the hope of saluation. ⁹ For God hath not appointed vs to wrath: but to obtaine saluation by our Lord Iesus Christ.
¹⁰ Who died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should lyeue together with him. ¹¹ Wherefore, comfort your selues together, and edifie one another, euen as also ye doe.

¹² And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you: ¹³ And to esteeme them very highly in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace among your selues. ¹⁴ Now wee exhort you, brethren, warne them that are vnruely, comfort the feeble minded, support the weake, be patient toward all men. ¹⁵ See that none render euil for euil vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both among your selues and to all men.

sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

⁶ If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, nourished vp in the wordes of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. ⁷ But refuse prophane and olde wiuues fables, and exercise thy selfe rather vnto godlinesse. ⁸ For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, hauing promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. ⁹ This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance : ¹⁰ For therefore we both labour, and suffer reproch, because we trust in the liuing God, who is the Sauour of all men, specially of those that beleue.

¹¹ These things command and teach. ¹² Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the beleeuers, in word, in conuersation, in charitie, in spirit, in faith, in puritie. ¹³ Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. ¹⁴ Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophesie, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbyterie. ¹⁵ Meditate vpon these things, giue thy selfe wholly to them, that thy profitng may appeare to all. ¹⁶ Take heed vnto thy selfe, and vnto the doctrine : continue in them : for in doing this, thou shalt both saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

5. REBUKE not an Elder, but intreate him as a father, and the yonger men as brethren : ² The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters with all puritie. ³ Honour vviddowes that are vviddowes indeed. ⁴ But if any vvidthow haue children or nephevvies, let them learne first to shew pietie at home, and to requite their parents : for that is good and acceptable before God. ⁵ Now she that is a vvidthow in deed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers trary wyse he sayd to the other, I haue sworne in my wrathe, If they shal enter made perfect from the foundation of the worlde.

⁴ For he spake in a certayne place of the

⁵ And in this place agayne, If they shal enter into my rest. ⁶ Seeing therefore it foloweth that some must enter therinto, yet a reste to the people of God. ¹⁰ For he that is entred into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from the foundation of the vvorld being perfited.

⁴ For he said in a certayne place of the seuenth day, thus : And God rested the seuenth day from all his vvorkes. ⁵ And againe in this, If they shal enter into my rest. ⁶ Because then it remaineth that certaine enter into it, and they to vvhom first it vvvas preached, did not enter because of incredulitie : ⁷ againe he limiteth a certayne day : To day, in Dauid say-

To day if you shal heare his voyce : doe not obdurate your hartes. ⁸ For if Iesus speake of an other day afterward. ⁹ Therefore there is left a sabbatisme for the people of God. ¹⁰ For he that is entred into his rest, the same also hath rested from his vvorkes, as God from his.

¹¹ Let vs hasten therefore to enter into that rest : no man fal into the same he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise : And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works. ⁵ And in this place agayne : If they shall enter into my rest. ⁶ Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not in because of vnbeleefe : ⁷ Agayne, hee limiteth a certaine day, saying in Da-uid, To day, after so long a time : as it is said, To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts. ⁸ For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then would he not afterward haue spoken of another day.

⁹ There remaineth therefore a *rest to the people of God. ¹⁰ For he that is entred into his rest, hee also hath ceased from his owne works, as God did from his.

¹¹ Let vs labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of ^cvnbeleefe. ¹² For the word of God is quicke and powerful, and sharper then any two edged sword, piercing euen to the diuiding asunder of soule and spirit, and of the ioyntes and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. ¹³ Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight : but all things are naked, and opened vnto the eyes of him with whome wee haue to doe. ¹⁴ Seeing then that wee haue a great high Priest, that is passed into the hea-uens, Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession. ¹⁵ For we haue not

6. THEREFORE leauing the ^δ principles of the doctrine of Christ, let vs goe on vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith towards God, ² Of the doctrine of Baptismes, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal Iudgement. ³ And this will we doe, if God permit. ⁴ For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost, ⁵ And haue tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come; ⁶ If they shall fall away, to renew them againe vnto repentance: seeing they crucifie to themselves the Sonne of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. ⁷ For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them ^β by whom it is dressed, receiue th blessing from God. ⁸ But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reiected, and is nigh vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

⁹ But beloued, wee are perswaded better things of you, and things that accompany saluation, though we thus speake. ¹⁰ For God is not vnrighteous, to forget your worke and labour of loue, which ye haue shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered to the Saints, and doe minister. ¹¹ And we desire, that every one of you doe shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end: ¹² That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, ⁸ And here men that die receiue Tythes: but there hee receiue them, of whom it is witnessed that he lyueth. ⁹ And as I may so say, Leui also who receiueh Tythes, payed Tythes in Abraham. ¹⁰ For hee was yet in the loynes of his Father when Melchisedec met him. ¹¹ If therefore perfection were by the Leuitical Priesthood (for vnder it the people receiued the Law) what further neede was there, that another Priest should rise after the ordre of Melchisedec, and not be called after the ordre of Aaron? ¹² For the Priesthood being changed, there is made of necessitie a change also of the Law. ¹³ For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another Tribe, of which no man gaue attendance at the Altar. ¹⁴ For it is euident that our Lord sprang out of Iuda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning Priesthood. ¹⁵ And it is yet farre more euident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another Priest, ¹⁶ Who is made not after the Law of a carnall commandement, but after the power of an endlesse life. ¹⁷ For hee testifieth; Thou art a Priest for euer, after the ordre of Melchisedec. ¹⁸ For there is verily a disanulling of the commandement going before, for the weakenesse and vnprofitableness thereof.

¹⁹ For the Law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did: by the which we draw nigh vnto God. ²⁰ And in as much as not without an oath he was made Priest, ²¹ (For those Priests were made without an oath: but this with an oath, by him that said vnto him, The Lord sware and wil not repent, thou art a Priest for euer after the ordre

JAMES a seruāt of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. ² My brethren, count it all ioy when yee fall into diuers temptations, ³ Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience, ⁴ But let patience haue her perfect worke, that yee may be perfect, and entire, wanting nothing. ⁵ If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, that giueth to all men liberally, and vvpraydeth not: and it shall be giuen him. ⁶ But let him aske in faith, nothing wauering: for he that wauereth is like a wauē of the sea, driuen with the wind, and tossed. ⁷ For let not that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord. ⁸ A double minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

⁹ Let the brother of lowe degree, ⁹ reioyce in that he is exalted: ¹⁰ But the rich, in that hee is made low: because as the flower of the grasse he shall passe away. ¹¹ For the Sunne is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grasse; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his wayes. ¹² Blessed is the man that endureth

2. MY brethren, haue not the faith of our Lord Iesus Christ the Lord of glorie, with respect of persons. ² For if there come vnto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man, in vile raiment: ³ And yee haue respect to him that weareth the gaye clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here ^β in a good place: and say to the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstool: ⁴ Are yee not then partial in your selues, and are become iudges of euill thoughts?

⁵ Hearken, my beloued brethren, Hath not God chosen the poore of this world, rich in faith, and heires of the kingdom, which hee hath promised to them that loue him? ⁶ But yee haue despised the poore. Doe not rich men oppresse you, and draw you before the Iudgement seats? ⁷ Doe not they blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called? ⁸ If ye fulfill the royall Law, according to the Scripture, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well. ⁹ But if yee haue respect to persons, yee commit sinne, and are conuicted of the Law, as transgressours. ¹⁰ For whosoeuer shall keepe the whole Law, yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. ¹¹ For he that said, Doe not commit adulterie, said also, Doe not kill. Now if thou commit no adulterie, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the Law. ¹² So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the Law of libertie. ¹³ For hee shall haue iudgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy reioyseth against iudgement.

¹⁴ What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say hee hath faith, and haue not vvorkes? can faith saue him? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister be naked, and

These thinges must not be so done my brethren.

¹¹ Doth the fountaine giue forth out of one hole sveete and soure water? ¹² Can, my brethren, the figge tree yeld grapes: or the vine, figges? So neither can the salt water yeld sweete.

listeth. ⁵ Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasteth great things: behold, how great a matter a litle fyre kindleth. ⁶ And the tongue is a fyre, a world of iniquitie: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hell.

⁷ For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath bene tamed of man-kind. ⁸ But the tongue can no man tame, it is an vnruly euill, ful of deadly poison. ⁹ Therewith blesse we God, euen the Father: and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. ¹⁰ Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these thinges ought not so to be. ¹¹ Doeth a fountaine send forth at the same place swete water and bitter? ¹² Can the figtree, my brethren, beare oliue berries? either a vine figs? so can no fountaine both yeld salt water and fresh.

¹³ Who is a wise man and indued with knowledge amongst you? let him shew out of a good conuersation his workes with meeknesse of wisdom. ¹⁴ But if ye haue bitter enuyng and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. ¹⁵ This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, deuilish. ¹⁶ For where enuyng and strife is, there is confusion, and euery euil worke. ¹⁷ But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be intreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, without partialitie, and without hypocrisie. ¹⁸ And the fruit of righteounesse is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

I stere vp, and warne your pure myndes, ² To call to remembrance the wordes, which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commendement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauour.

¹⁰ And the day of the Lord wyl come as a thiefe in the night, in the which day the heauens shal passe away with a noyse, and the elementes shal melt with heate, and the earth with the workes, that are therein shal burne. ¹¹ Seing therefore all these thinges muste be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlynnes? ¹² Looking for, and hastyng vnto the comming in the day of God, in which the heauens shal be dissolued with fyre, and the elementes shal melt with heat. ¹³ But, we loke for new heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promis, wherin dwelleth righteousness.

by admonition your sincere minde: ² that you may be mindful of those vvordes vvich I told you before from the holy Prophets, and of your Apostles, of the preceptes of our Lord and Sauour. ³ Knowing this first, that in the last daies shal come mockers in deceit, vvalking according to their ovne concupiscences, ⁴ saying, Vvhere is his promise or his comming? For since the time that the fathers slept, all things do so perseuere from the beginning of creature. ⁵ For they are vvillfully ignorant of this, that the heauens vvore before, and the earth, out of vvater, and through vvater, consisting by the vvord of God: ⁶ by the vvich, that vvorld then, being ouerflowed vvith vvater perished.

⁸ But (beloued) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day. ⁹ The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is long-suffering to vs-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. ¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a great noise, and the Elements shal melt with feruent heat, the earth also and the workes that are therein shall be burnt vp. ¹¹ Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolued, what maner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conuersation, and godlinesse, ¹² Looking for and hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, wherein the heauens being on fire shall be dissolued, and the Elements shal melt with feruent heat? ¹³ Neuerthelesse we, according to his promise, looke for new heauens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

⁹ I had vvritten perhaps to the Church: but he that loueth to beare primacie among them, Diotrepes, doth not receiue vs. ¹⁰ For this cause, if I come, I vvill aduertise his vvorkes vvich he doeth: vvith malicious vvordes chatting against vs. and as though these thinges suffice him not: neither him self doth receiue the brethren, and them that do receiue, he prohibiteth, and casteth out of the Church.

1. THE reuelation of IESVS CHRIST, which God gaue vnto hym, for to shew vnto his seruantes things which muste shortly be done: and he sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn, ² Who bare recorde of the worde of God, and of the testimonie of IESVS CHRIST, and of all things that he sawe. ³ Happy is he that readeth, and happy are they that heare the worde of this prophetic, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the tyme is at hande. ⁴ Iohn, to the seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be to you and peace, from him which Is, and which Was, and Which is to come, and from the seuen Spirites which are before his Throne, ⁵ And from Iesus Christ, which is a faithful witnes, and fyrst begotten of the dead: and Prince of the kynges of the earth: vnto him that loued vs, and wasshed vs from our synnes in his bloude, ⁶ And made vs Kyniges and Preistes vnto God his Father, be glorie, and dominion for euermore. Amen.

⁷ Beholde, he cometh with cloudes, and euery eye shal see hym: yea euery they which peared him through: and all kynredes of the earth shal wayle before him. Euen so. Amen. ⁸ I am α and ω, that is the begynning and the ending, sayth the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, the almyghty I say.

RHEIMS — 1582.

1. THE Apocalypse of IESVS CHRIST which God gaue him, to make manifest to his seruants the things vvhich must be done quickly: and signified, sending by his Angel to his seruant Iohn, ² vwho hath giuen testimonie to the vvord of God, and the testimonie of IESVS CHRIST, vvhat things soeuer he hath seen. ³ Blessed is he that readeth and heareth the wordes of this prophetic: and keepeth those things which be vvritten in it. for the time is nigh.

⁴ Iohn to the seuen churches vvhich are in Asia. Grace to you and peace from him that is, and that vvvas, and that shal come, and from the seuen spirittes vvhich are in the sight of his throne, ⁵ and from IESVS CHRIST vvho is the faithful vvitness, the first-borne of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth, vvho hath loued vs, and vvashed vs from our sinnes in his blood, ⁶ and hath made vs a kingdom and priestes to God and his father, to him be glorie and empire for euer and euer. Amen.

⁷ Behold he commeth vvith the cloudes, and euery cie shal see him, and they that pricked him. And al the tribes of the earth shal bevaile them selues vpon him. yea, Amen. ⁸ I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and end, saith our Lord God, vvvhich is, and vvvhich vvvas, and vvvhich shal come, the omnipotent.

tales : and their power was to hurt men fyve monethes. ¹¹ And they haue a kynge ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomesse pyt, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon : and in the Greeke, Apollyon. ¹² One wo is past, and beholde two woes come after this.

¹³ Then the syxt Angel blew, and I heard a voyce from the foure corners of the golden aultre, which is before God, ¹⁴ Saying to the syxt Angel, which had the trompet, Lose the foure Angelles, which are bounde in the great ryuer Euphrates. ¹⁵ And the foure Angelles were losed, whych were prepared for an houre, for a day, for a moneth, and for a yere, to slay the thyrde part of men. ¹⁶ And the nombre of horsmen of warre, were twenty thousand tymes ten thousand for I hearde the nombre of them : ¹⁷ Also thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, haunyng fyry habergions, and of lacinte and of brymstone, and the heades of the horses were as the heades of lyons : and out of their mouthes went forth fyre and smoke and brymstone.

their tales : and their pover was to hurt men fyve monethes. ¹¹ and they had ouer them a king, the Angel of the bottomesse depth, vvhose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke Apollyon : in Latin hauiing the name Exterminians. ¹² One vvoe is gone, and behold two vvoes come yt after these.

¹³ And the sixt Angel sounded vvith the trompet : and I heard one voice from the foure hornes of the golden altar, vvich is before the eies of God, ¹⁴ saying to the sixt Angel which had the trompet, Loose the foure angels which are bound in the great riuier Euphrates. ¹⁵ And the foure Angels vvere loosed, vvho vvere prepared for an houre, and a day and a moneth and a yere : that they might kil the third part of men. ¹⁶ And the number of the armie of horsmen vvvas tvventie thousand times ten thousand. And I heard the number of them. ¹⁷ And so I savv the horses in the vision : and they that sate vpon them, had habbergions of fire and of hyacinth and brimstone. and the heades of the horses were as it were the heades of lions : and from their mouth proceedeth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

their power was to hurt men fyve monethes. ¹¹ And they had a King ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greeke tongue hath his name Apollyon. ¹² One woe is past, and behold there come two woes more hereafter.

¹³ And the sixt Angel sounded, and I heard a voyce from the foure hornes of the golden Altar, which is before God, ¹⁴ Saying to the sixth Angel which had the trumpet, Loose the foure Angels which are bound in the great riuier Euphrates. ¹⁵ And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared ¹⁶ for an houre, and a day, and a moneth, and a yere, for to slay the third part of men. ¹⁷ And the number of the army of the horsmen were two hundred thousand thousand : and I heard the number of them. ¹⁸ And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sate on them, hauing brest-plates of fire and of lacinat, and brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lions, and out of their mouthes issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

AND after these things, I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory. ² And hee cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the hold of euery foule spirit, and a cage of euery vncleane and hateful bird: ³ For all nations haue drunke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the Merchants of the earth are waxed rich thorow the abundance of her delicacies. ⁴ And I heard another voice from heauen, saying, Come out of her, my people, that yee be not partakers of her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues: ⁵ For her sinnes haue reached vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

⁶ Reward her euen as she rewarded you, and double vnto her double according to her workes: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double. ⁷ How much she hath glorified her selfe, and liued deliciously, so much torment and sorrow giue her: for she saith in her heart, I

THE increased zeal which is daily manifested for the study of the Scriptures in their original languages seems to hold out to the friends of Theological learning the best hope of a continuance of true Church Scholarship. For although the great and essential truths of Revelation are placed within the reach of all who can study the English Translation, yet we think that few will deny but that much instruction, of no ordinary value and interest, rewards those who read in the Original the writings which form the basis of their private studies and their public teaching; and who thus enjoy the advantage of examining the work itself, instead of trusting to a translation however faithful and spirited.

The general arguments, however, in favour of the study of Hebrew in particular, have been satisfactorily responded to by the demand for all well executed works on that subject, whether as regards Grammars and Lexicons, or publications for the explanation of particular portions of Holy Writ; so

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. ² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. ³ The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. ⁴ Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

⁵ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁶ From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. ⁷ Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

¹⁰ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom: give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. ¹¹ To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. ¹² When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

¹³ Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

¹⁴ Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. ¹⁵ And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. ¹⁶ Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; ¹⁷ Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. ¹⁸ Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall

ISAIA, CAP. I.

Visio Isaïæ filii Amos, quam vidit super Judam et Jerusalem in diebus Ozia, Joathan, Achaz, et Ezechia, regum Juda. ² Audite celi, et auribus percipe terra, quoniam Dominus locutus est. Filios enutrivit, et exaltavi: ipsi autem spreverunt me. ³ Cognovit bos possessorem suum, et asinus præsepe domini sui: Israël autem me non cognovit, et populus meus non intellexit. ⁴ Væ genti peccatrici, populo gravi iniquitate, semini nequam, filiis sceleratis: dereliquerunt Dominum, blasphemaverunt sanctum Israël, abalienati sunt retrorsum.

⁵ Super quo percutiam vos ultra, addentes prævaricationem? omne caput languidum, et omne cor mœrens. ⁶ A planta pedis usque ad verticem, non est in eo sanitas: vulnus, et livor, et plaga tumens, non est circumligata, nec curata medicamine, neque fota oleo. ⁷ Terra vestra deserta, civitates vestrae succensæ igni: regionem vestram coram vobis alieni devorant, et desolabitur sicut in vastitate hostili. ⁸ Et derelinquetur filia Sion ut umbraculum in vinea, et sicut tugurium in cucumenario, et sicut civitas, quæ vastatur. ⁹ Nisi Dominus exercituum reliquisset nobis semen, quasi Sodoma fuisset, et quasi Gomorrha similes essemus.

¹⁰ Audite verbum Domini principes Sodomorum, percipite auribus legem Dei nostri populus Gomorrha. ¹¹ Quis mihi multitudinem victimarum vestrarum, dicit Dominus? plenus sum: holocausta arietum, et adipem pinguium, et sanguinem vitulorum, et agnorum, et hircorum, nolui. ¹² Cum veniretis ante conspectum meum, quis quæsitivæ hæc de manibus vestris, ut ambularetis in atris meis? ¹³ Ne offeratis ultra sacrificium frustra: incensum abominatio est mihi. Neomeniam, et sabbatum, et festivitates alias non feram, iniqui sunt cotus vestri: ¹⁴ Calendas vestras, et sollemnitates vestras, odit anima mea: facta sunt mihi inolesta, laboravi sustinens. ¹⁵ Et cum extenderitis manus vestras, avertam oculos meos a vobis: et cum multiplicaveritis orationem, non exaudiam: manus enim vestra sanguine plenæ sunt. ¹⁶ Lavamini, mundi estote, auferite malum cogitationum vestrarum ab oculis meis: quiescite agere perverse, ¹⁷ Discite benefacere: quærite iudicium, subvenite oppresso, judicate pupillo, defendite viduam. ¹⁸ Et venite, et arguite me, dicit Dominus: si fuerint peccata vestra ut coccinum, quasi nix dealbabuntur: et si fuerint rubra quasi that it may safely be asserted, that a knowledge of Hebrew is universally admitted as indispensable for the Theological writer, and certainly is a most valuable qualification for any religious instructor.

The object of the publication now contemplated may be briefly explained. The Editor having been for many years accustomed to read, preparatory to each Sunday, the Lessons of that day in their originals, and having of late years been successful in introducing that study among the higher pupils of his school, has met with the difficulties which might naturally be expected in such reading. For while we study in the Hebrew, we must compare the older versions, at least the Septuagint and the Vulgate; and to have these together with the English Translation before the eye at one view, requires an accommodation not afforded by any one book yet published. The only volume within ordinary reach which would seem calculated for such a purpose, is the Polyglot Bible, in Eight Languages, of Mr. Bagster; but the very compactness and comprehensiveness of that book, required a type smaller than might be convenient to many.

There are also many Clergymen well acquainted with Hebrew who gradually allow their knowledge of it to drop, or at least, do not extend it, because they feel at a loss how to select portions which they may follow up with advantage.

There are many in our Cathedrals and Colleges, and in Churches, where more than one Minister is engaged in the service, who, it is presumed, would gladly avail themselves of the recurrence of these well-known selections, to have them brought before their eye with every illustration, as often as they are repeated in their hearing. It was to meet the views of such of the Clergy as are thus situated that this volume was contemplated; but more especially in the hope that the facilities here afforded to those who are about to take Holy Orders, might enable them to comprehend more perfectly the portions of the Old Testament which the Church has thus selected, and these might lead them to a more extended but equally minute investigation of all Scripture.

The Editor no sooner submitted the idea of this publication to Messrs. Bagster and Sons, but they undertook it with that zeal and cordiality which has so long characterized their exertions in all departments of Biblical literature, and while their name will be a sufficient guarantee to the Public for the execution and accuracy of the work, the Editor is happy that, by being allowed to give his services as it passes through the press, he is enabled to offer this testimony of his reverence for the Church, and his sincere desire to aid her teaching.
